Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3, 5, 6-8, 10, are rejected under 35 U.S.C 102(b) as being anticipated by Camaisa et al. (US PAT:5,845,263, hereinafter Camaisa).

Regarding claims 1 and 6, Camaisa discloses a method for making a gastronomic inquiry with a display device to an information server having a gastronomic database and displaying a response to gastronomic inquiry from the information server on the display device, the method comprising the steps of: sending the gastronomic inquiry from the display device to the information server (100, figs. 1-2, col. 11 lines 58-63 and figs. 6-12), preparing gastronomic response to the gastronomic inquiry on the information server, receiving gastronomic response to the gastronomic inquiry from the information server with the display device, formatting the gastronomic response to the gastronomic inquiry on the display device (figs. 3, 6-12, col. 14 lines 21-67, col. 15 lines 1-21, col. 5 lines 40-65), displaying formatted gastronomic response to the gastronomic inquiry on the display device as shown in figs. 6-12).

Regarding claims 2-3, 5, 7-8, and 10, Camaisa further teaches the following: display device being a mobile device (col. 12 lines 61-65 and claim 1), including a tactile, audible, or visual interface for the display device (col. 8 lines 25-29), with the steps being performed at a desired time (col. 13 lines 11-19).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 4 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Camaisa in view of Padmanabhan et al. (US PAT: 6,219,638 B1, filed 11-3-1998, hereinafter Padmanabhan).

Regarding claims 4 and 9, Camaisa does not teach the following: any language is translated.

However, Padmanabhan discloses a telephone message and editing system which teaches the following: any language is translated (col. 5 lines 10-13, col. 5 lines 1-7).

Thus, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time invention was made to modify Camaisa's system to provide for the following: any language is translated as this arrangement would facilitate to send the information in the desired language as taught by Padmanabhan, thus making the system versatile.
